Nathan Hardenburg

nathanhardenburg@gmail.com
www.linkedin/in/nathan-hardenburg/

Skills

Proficient in MS Excel forecasting and data presentation methods. Working knowledge in data analysis and software SAS EM and SAS EG. Experience in project and driver management.

Experience

DCS Operations

May 2019 - PRESENT, J.B. Hunt

- Presented an improved DMIT training platform to DCS leadership for summer intern project.
- Gained experience as a manager in flatbed, livehaul, and grocery operations across five accounts in the MW and SW regions.
- Obtained account-specific and business-unit wide knowledge and values including: Leaders 201, payroll auditing and invoicing, Customer Value Delivery, load planning, claims process improvement and claims reduction.
- Emphasized driver retention and safety. Regularly educated new and incumbent drivers in company policies and values.

Retail Supply Chain Analysis

January 2019 - May 2019, University of Arkansas

- Collaborated with J.B. Hunt's 360 team to formulate insights on FreightWaves data to improve transportation efficiency and promote J.B. Hunt's emphasis on technology-driven solutions.
- Presented findings to J.B. Hunt leadership and other supply chain professionals.

Tiny Tim's Pizza / Manager

September 2015 - May 2019, Fayetteville, AR

- Oversaw restaurant operations with emphasis on customer satisfaction
- Enforced efficient and accurate service by employees. Audited cash and receipts nightly to avoid discrepancies with sales.

Education

University of Arkansas / BSBA in Supply Chain Management, Minor in Business Analytics

Transportation and Distribution Management, Supply Management, Retail Analysis, Data Mining, Econometrics, Business Information, Inventory Forecasting Analytics

Awards

Participant of winning team for Credera's Counterfeit Goods Use Case in the University of Arkansas' Blockchain Hackathon.